

PRESS RELEASE - Nuevo – Popular health website offers content in Spanish

Immuno Laboratories, Inc.

Better Health USA announces the addition of Spanish health content to its website, www.betterhealthusa.com.

Spanish-speaking Internet users in the U.S. exceed the total online population of most major Spanish-speaking nations according to a recent study by comScore Media Metrix. Better Health USA's Spanish content is just the beginning of a multi-lingual effort to provide health and testing information to assist patients and physicians worldwide manage chronic symptoms.

Spanish-speaking visitors to the website may view the Spanish content by clicking on the "en espanol" icons throughout the site. Discover the hidden link between food allergies and weight loss, sinus infections, ADHD/ADD, autism, skin rashes, irritable bowel syndrome, fibromyalgia, chronic fatigue and migraine headaches. Read real reports of how individuals around the world enjoy healthier lives because they uncovered the foods that were toxic to their system.

A 25-year ongoing study revealed that 95% of the entire population has "type two" delayed allergic reactions (IgG response) to common everyday foods. Find out now how likely it is that certain food reactions may be the root cause of your chronic, nagging symptoms. Better Health USA visitors are welcome to try a free symptom evaluation at www.betterhealthusa.com/public/174.cfm.
